

Shroven (Newchurch and Brighstone)

A Shroven, A Shroven, we be come a Shroven,
A piece of bread, a piece of cheese, a piece of your fat bacon,
Or one or two Doughnuts, all of your own maken.

Ch.

A Shroven, A Shroven, we be come a Shroven

A Shroven, Shroven, we be come a Shroven,
Fine fowls in a pie, My mouth is very dry,
I wish I was as well-a-wet, I'd Sing the better for a nut.

Ch.

A Shroven, Shroven, we be come a Shroven

A Shroven, A Shroven, we be come a Shroven,
Nice meat in a pie, My mouth is very dry,
I wish I was as well-a-wet, I'd sing the louder for a nut.

Ch.

A Shroven, A Shroven, we be come a Shroven

A Shroven, A Shroven, we be come a Shroven,
White bread and apple pie, My mouth is very dry,
I wish I was as well-a-wet, I'd sing the louder for a nut.

Ch.

A Shroven, A Shroven, we be come a Shroven

A Shroven, A Shroven, we be come a Shroven
The roads are very dirty, Our boots are very thin.
We have a little pocket, To put a penny in.

Ch.

A Shroven, A Shroven, we be come a Shroven

A pancake or a truffle cheese, or a bit of your own making I'd rather have than none at all, A bit or your own baking. (Cause I likes your home baking)

Ch.

A Shroven, A Shroven, we be come a Shroven

Calls

Pan bell, Pan bell; Holiday, Holiday. Ring the Newport bell!
Pitt a patt, the pan's hot
